Donor & Client Story

A mature woman came into the FLS center with two grocery bags of children's clothes to donate. When asked, "How did you hear about us?", she replied, "Oh, you helped me a long time ago."

I already had children and didn't think I could care for another one. With your help, I did. I always tell people about you. I let them know you really care and will help."

She continued, "When my teen daughter got pregnant, I did not take her to the Planned Parenthood; I brought her to you. She kept my grandchild."

Now I bring you the things my young grandkids have outgrown so that you can use them to help other families."
